

Dear Parents and Guardians,

I trust that your kids are looking forward to "Paintball 2" camp at Butler Springs. My name is Brent Smith. I am the pastor at the Bowersville Church of Christ and will be leading this week with my wife Jaime and one of the leaders at our church, Jeff Sandlin. We will be spending some action-packed time at camp, not just doing paintball, but with many of the other awesome activities at the camp (rock climbing and the Big Swing are my favorite.) In the midst of this, we will be leading them to know Jesus. Specifically, we will be emphasizing what the Bible says our "aim" should be and the nature of the spiritual battles that every person faces.

The camp provides a list of things that a camper should and should not bring to camp. One of the things that I would like to direct your attention to is "missions money." Every year Butler Springs selects a Christian mission that campers give to during the course of the summer. This year's mission is AIM, a mission whose purpose is to combat human trafficking in Cambodia and help those who are rescued from human trafficking develop the skills they need to live independently. Their website is aimfree.org.

Just a reminder that check in time will be at 7:00 PM on Thursday June 10 (please eat dinner before arriving at camp) and check out time is 4:00 PM on Saturday June 12. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to call or text me at 937.708.1990.

In Christ,

Brent Smith
